A message from Father Quentin...

Jesus Christ describes himself in our Gospel reading today as the Good Shepherd. The Good Shepherd is one of the images that the early Church used often in depicting Christ. Being in a rural community this image of good shepherd could be somewhat relatable to our own experience.

The passage we have today is from John chapter 10. Later in the 21st chapter of John Jesus reveals to Peter that he is to continue the presence of Jesus on earth in a very real way as being the good shepherd when he tells him feed my lambs, tend my sheep, and feed my sheep at his threefold proclamation of his love.

Today please spend a few moments in prayer for our current shepherd in succession of St. Peter, Pope Francis and our local shepherd Archbishop Naumann. May God continue to grant us unity with our shepherds.

"These also I must lead, and they will hear my voice, and there will be one flock, one shepherd."

May God Bless us.

God bless all those in need of the Lord's healing touch....

The group will begin on Friday, June 7.

Faith Minute....

At a crowded playground, somehow mothers are able to discern their own child's cries.

Likewise, when a mom shouts, "Time to go!" her own child knows he has been summoned.

This is the type of intimate familiarity that Jesus wants with us when he says, "My sheep hear my voice," and the kind that husbands and wives should have with one another.

Married couples can intentionally grow in this kind of unity by:

- Learning to share feelings in a way that makes them feel connected.
- Developing a healthy way to come together on issues and make decisions.
- Appreciating the other's unique masculinity or femininity.

These skills are all taught in an upcoming course called Every Day in Love.

More Archdiocesan Announcements

On Sunday, May 12, the Catholic Church asks us to pray for an increase in vocations to the priesthood and religious life. Just as Jesus encountered Simon and Andrew, asking them to leave their nets and follow him, he asks the same of us. The Lord's call to the priesthood or religious life is not a burden, but a loving invitation to assist him in his mission. This week, please pray that those who Christ is calling will not be afraid but will trust in his plan for them which will bring more joy fulfillment than they could imagine.
