A message from Father Quentin...

Moses encourages the people today as he invites them to keep the commandments and statutes of the Lord and to return to God with their whole hearts and souls.

One of our teachings of the Church is about the natural law. It is the law that we receive from our very nature.

The Decalogue (Ten Commandments) is the law revealed by God to Moses but it is also the same law that is written on our very hearts by being made in the image and likeness of our creator. That is why in the first reading today Moses tells the people this Law of God is not as we might say a pie in the sky but it is a law that is already in our mouths and hearts.

Let us look to the revealed commandments of God and see how they are reflected in our very nature and hearts. May we have the strength to follow those commandments and statutes.

Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ....Now and Forever!

Thank you to everyone that attended, volunteered, helped and prayed for Vacation Bible School this past week. We had a wonderful time and couldn't have done it without all of you. We look forward to next year.

The Kansas City Royals will host their annual Faith & Family Night at The K on Saturday, July 27th. The event will feature post-game events including a concert by Matthew West. ## Faith Minute....

Have you ever noticed it's often easier to be kind to strangers when you're angry than it is to be kind to your family?

In Psalms we hear that the Lord is “slow to anger and abounding in compassion”, and in the Gospel Jesus tells his disciples that they will be known by how well they love.

How well we love our families, especially in anger, is proof of our Christianity!

If loving your family in trying times is a challenge, consider this. We don't have to feel warm and fuzzy to be kind. In fact, often when we act kind or compassionate despite our feelings to the contrary, the feelings follow.

Next time we feel tempted to snap at our loved ones, let's try to think of what it would look like to respond with “abounding compassion”. This self-control will be a powerful witness to our love of the Lord.
